 - 7th and 8th grade band and choir concert Tuesday December 14 @ 6:30

- Both band and choir are working on Italian terms.
- Congratulations to the All-State band band choir students: Band - Bradley Barnard and Choir Annie Daniels. They will be traveling to Peoria at the end of January (26-29).
- District went well
- Avise-Rouse:
 - We had a recent donation of a concert bass drum

Old Business:

- Trivia - Saturday January 15 @ 7:00pm Turner Hall Volunteers are needed.
- If anybody has donated in the past or know of anyone who can donate please ask them.
- Sponsor a round for $100 - name or business will be displayed on the screen with a short blurb about business.
- Tenor Sax requested by Mr. Hoke was approved by family.
- Basketball concessions: The first game went well. Price increases didn't seem to be a problem. Everything sold well. The second game was canceled. There is a game on Friday the 17th and the 21st. Please think about signing up on Signup ahead. The link will be emailed out.
- We could really use some fresh new faces to help out for events.

Committee Reports:

- eScripts: No longer have escripts
- Amazon Smile: no smile update - email will be sent to band parents about using Amazon Smile. Should have a report after Christmas.
- Website/Facebook
 - Facebook - Like and share!

New Business:

- Mel Stuckmeyer graciously donates his trailer for the Christmas parade to the band. Please utilize his produce stand when possible.

- Jay would like to create a standing committee for trivia and technology. This will be addressed at the next meeting. It is suggested to also have a concessions committee.
- The Winter Tournament is December 27, 28, 29. We will be offering concessions and need a lot of people to volunteer to help. Will have one main person there all day, each day to help oversee.
- Lillian Koenigstein purchased lights for the band to use during the Christmas parade and it has been approved to reimburse her.

Close of meeting: 8:20pm approved: Kristian Avise-Rouse Seconded:
